Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics
Virginia Tech

AREA OF SPECIALIZATION FORM

The Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics requires majors to complete an approved area of specialization. This area of specialization may be within OR outside of the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, and may consist of a minor offered by any department or 18 hours of in-major courses from a double major or dual degree. If a specific minor, double major or dual degree is not selected, the student should work with his/her advisor to create an 18-hour area of specialization consisting of courses at the 3000-level or above. [This paperwork may be submitted at any time, but should be submitted NO LATER than the second semester of the student's junior year.]
